

Catherine A. Colajezzi

Honorable Carolyn Nichols

RE: Gregory Spector

Dear Judge Nichols:

I am Gregory Spector's maternal grandmother. It is hard to put into words what kind of man he is.

He was brought up by loving parents, although divorced; he and his sister were taught right from wrong. From childhood he has had an easy smile and cheerful disposition. Greg is a quiet person who as a teenager worked alongside his father volunteering to ready the ball fields each spring for the township.

He is family oriented, a loving grandson, son, husband and father. He is especially close to his Dad. He is a hard worker who takes pride in providing for his family. Greg certainly is one of the new generations of dads who share equally in family chores and childcare. You will not find him sitting down while there is something to be fixed, put away or cleaned up. He enjoys family time either with his wife, Ashley, and the girls, Kylie and Lily, or his extended family sharing meals or working on some type of project.

He is always willing to lend a hand to friends or family. He takes time out each fall to help take his sister back to college at Penn State. Greg also takes great pride for being accepted as a volunteer firefighter for Lower Southampton Township, going out the door quickly whenever he gets a call.

I hope you can be lenient in your sentencing. I can truthfully say that Greg doesn't drink or smoke and has never been in trouble before.

Sincerely,

Catherine A. Colajezzi
