

Your honor,

My name is Jennie Franklin, I am the office manager for [REDACTED] which is the family business of the Spector Family. I have been employed by the Spector family for over 22 years. Throughout those years I have not only watched the Spector children grow but have been a part of their lives both professionally and personally, in and outside of work, as they have been of mine.

I am writing this letter on behalf of one of those kids that I watched grow up. Gregory Spector. I can tell you a lot about Greg, how he is a kind person, a good guy, a family man and a great daddy. I am sure you have read these types of letters before, but I have to impress the fact that Greg is not a danger in any shape or form to society. He was brought up with a conscious and a sense of morality.

Nothing can change the events of what has happened. I can only attest to his character. I have known Gregory since childhood, he has always been a bright, fun, articulate, respectful young man. He had a dream of becoming a fire fighter which he did accomplish as soon as he was old enough to do so. He became a volunteer firefighter for his community. He is a young father of two little girls that he cherishes beyond anything else and he is a devoted husband. He is a hard worker, and is greatly respected among his coworkers. I have never seen nor heard of Gregory doing anything out of his character, until that night when he absolutely believed his father's life was in danger. Who is to say any one of us would not have done the same put in that situation?

My hope is that by writing this letter to you, your honor, to please consider not the man who was charged but the wonderful father, brother, son and friend that he always was and continues to be, because that is his true nature.

Thank you

Jennie Franklin
